

Yves Bousquet, Education Program Coordinator

Yves received his B.Sc (Adv), B.Ed and M.Ed (Admin) from the University of Saskatchewan. Yves was a classroom teacher for 15 years and a school administrator for 23 years for Saskatoon Public Schools. As a teacher, Yves was invited by the Saskatchewan Ministry of Education to provide leadership in curriculum resources and teacher training development in elementary science and mathematics. At the Ministry of Education request, Yves spent a summer listening to Elders about “Learning”. He co- authored a document guiding teachers to respect Indigenous World Views when teaching science.

Yves was named “Champion of Children” five times. He and his staff members were recognized by the Society for Advancement of Excellence in Education for their work in an Urban Aboriginal community. He was named “Distinguished Principal” in 2014 by the Saskatchewan School Based Administrators Association. His greatest honor was to received two Eagle Feathers over his career.

Yves is the Saskatchewan program coordinator for the Aboriginal Youth Entrepreneurship Program (AYEP). Yves has been supporting students and teachers with the AYEP since 2014.
